Robert "Bob" G. Simpson, 1963- 2012

Robert Simpson, 49, tournament director and manager of the Westwood Bridge Club, died unexpectedly on Friday, February 10, at his home in Millis. He was the son of Barbara and the late Robert E. Simpson.

Bob was born in Needham, MA, and graduated from Needham High School in 1981. He served in the U.S. Army Reserve and worked for the U.S. Postal Service and several companies in the computer industry, but his passion in life was duplicate bridge. For the past several years he ran the Westwood Duplicate Bridge Club, and was a tournament director for the American Contract Bridge League. He lived the saying "If you love what you do, you will never work a day in your life."

As a director, Bob was well-known for his calm demeanor, his kindness, and his fairness to players at all levels. He encouraged and supported beginning players, gently prodded slower players, and made everyone feel welcome. The Westwood club was his passion, and he was there seven days a week. Over the years, he built the club into a close-knit community.

Besides his mother, Barbara Simpson of Winter Haven, FL, whom he called faithfully every week, he is survived by his sister, Pam Lemieux, and her husband, Gary, of Pleasant Garden, NC, and a nephew and niece, William and Sara Lemieux. He also leaves a host of friends at the Westwood Club and in the larger bridge community.

In lieu of flowers, Bob's family suggests donating to the American Heart Association or the charity of your choice.
