Terry Bargar of Andover MA became a life master on Thursday night when her team placed 5th in C in the Stratified Open Pairs. She and her husband Richard Bargar followed that up with a 10th place finish in the Gold Rush Pairs on Friday. Yesterday, her team reached the final of the Saturday Compact KO, which gave Richard the points he needed to earn his Gold Card. They were both thrilled to reach the milestone, and it was extra special that they did it together at the same tournament. They then celebrated the accomplishment in the best possible way - by winning the Compact Knockout final. Their teammates were Beatrice Karger and Marie Collins on Thursday, and Paul Harris and Cecilla Borrás on Saturday.

“Let’s Party” ZIP Knockouts a Rousing Success

In a time where attendance at evening events is dropping precipitously, starting a new evening event seemed a risky proposition. Besides, who would want to play in a non-serious, party-atmosphere game when there were real, serious Regional events to be won? The prediction was that we would be lucky to get five tables .....

Well, over 50 fun-loving bridge players showed up, ready to have a good time. And have a good time they did - laughter and merriment echoed down the hallways. Plenty of bridge was played - 14 teams competed for the grand prize - but nobody took it too seriously, and the food and drink flowed freely.

Susan Miguel, the “Madam of the Zip KO,” arranged partnerships and teammates for several of the teams, including the Peterson team (Gary Peterson, Christine Pettingell, Ira Cooper, & Catherine Cooper) who, despite all having less than 200 masterpoints, lost narrowly in the final to the Gamerman team (Lew Gamerman, Murthy Ayyagari, Carolyn Weiser & Jeremy Lewis), in front of a host of rowdy kibitzers who were having waaay too good a time to leave.

“This is the best time we’ve ever had at a bridge tournament!” exclaimed one player. Others quickly agreed. “Why can’t all bridge games be like this?” Door prizes were given out at random to many of the players. Players from the flight A pair event next door kept peeking in to see what all the fuss was about.

We asked for a good hand to put in the bulletin, but curiously, nobody could remember one. Somehow, for one evening, they just didn’t seem the priority. “We bid a slam on one hand! Does anyone remember the hand?” Nobody did. No one complained to their partner about their play, and not once was the director called for a hesitation.

In the middle of a serious tournament, 50 players took an evening out to put the “play” back into playing bridge, and to remind themselves that we do this for fun much more than for masterpoints.

The event was such a success that plans are already being made to add TWO such events to the schedule at our next regional in Warwick - a Zip knockout on Thursday night, and a Zip Swiss Team game on Saturday evening.

“Do you have your team yet????”
