The Ethel Keohane Senior Regional Tournament

in Hyannis, MA

April 24 - 28, 2013

Welcome to the 25th annual District 25 Seniors Regional, here at our beautiful home in Hyannis.

In addition to gold-point events for our senior members, our tournament features silver-point events open to all, as well as newcomer and intermediate events for those with fewer than 300 masterpoints.

Susan Miguel will direct the Newcomers'/Intermediate sessions. Newcomers' games follow a different schedule from the main events - please see the "I/N Schedule" inside. The Newcomer program will offer free lessons, and free plays on Thursday for players with fewer than five masterpoints.

Our Hospitality and Partnership desks will be open before the afternoon and evening sessions. If you need a partner, or would like information about restaurants, or have questions or need help of any sort, our local volunteers will be present and eager to assist you.

David Metcalf is the editor of our Daily Bulletin. If you know of any items of special interest, such as a hand that is particularly well-played, a humorous anecdote, or an example of active ethics, please submit them to him for possible publication. In addition, if you or a teammate becomes a Life Master during the tournament, please let David know so that it may be announced and celebrated in the Bulletin. Be sure also to check the Bulletin for interesting bridge articles, and for announcements of special hospitality treats.

Enjoy the tournament, and good luck to all!

Zero Tolerance

Zero Tolerance is in effect at all District 25 tournaments. What can we do to make sure it works? Here's what Dick Budd, District 25 recorder, has to say:

Occasionally, your opponents do something you find rude or unethical. Most players simply do nothing at the time, and then complain loudly to their friends. This course of action leads the offenders to believe their actions are tolerated, and your friends that Zero Tolerance isn't working.

If you are subjected to rude and/or unethical behavior, call the director at the time of the incident. Report what happened, and ask for a player memo. Fill it out and hand it in. Every complaint will be investigated, and suitable action will be taken.

Help us make Zero Tolerance work, and make playing bridge even more enjoyable for all, from beginner to expert.

OFFICIAL ACBL SLOW PLAY POLICY

If you are a habitually (or even occasionally) slow player, you should be aware of the rules governing your conduct at the bridge table. These new, stricter rules will be applied at this and future tournaments.

The ACBL Board of Directors approved unanimously a policy, based on references to slow play regulations in the Laws of Duplicate Bridge. Their motion read,

“When a pair has fallen behind, it is incumbent on them to make up the time lost as quickly as possible, whether at fault or not. All players are expected to make a concerted effort to catch up when they have fallen behind, regardless of the reason for their lateness.

“In the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary, the director should presume that a pair finishing a round late by more than two or three minutes on more than one occasion during a session is responsible for the lateness. There is a strong expectation that the director will penalize such a pair. The size of the penalty will tend to increase for subsequent instances of slow play and for chronic or egregious slow play. While warnings typically will be given before a penalty is assessed, failure to do so in no way limits the director’s authority to issue a penalty.”

Slow play, as opposed to careful or thoughtful play, is discourteous to your opponents -- and to all other competitors as well. Players and pairs who take more than their allotted time will be subject to penalty. And if you do fall behind, even if through no fault of your own, you nevertheless have a clear obligation to get caught up as soon as possible.
