Active Ethics Award

At our last regional in Sturbridge last June, Rena Lieberman and Yiji Starr came in first overall in the Saturday A/X pairs (congrats!) However, just after midnight, they came into the Tournament Director's office. It seems that, in going over their scores from the evening session, they discovered that a board where they had been doubled and defeated had accidentally been scored by their opponents as +800 for them, rather than the -800 they had earned, thus turning a cold bottom into a complete top for them. They insisted that it be reversed, even if it meant they were no longer winning the event.

For their honorable actions, the Daily Bulletin wishes to nominate Rena and Yiji for an Active Ethics award. Their demonstration of skill and grace at the bridge table, and their classy actions afterward should serve as an example and an inspiration to us all.

p.s. even after we made the score correction, they won the event anyway.
