Sometimes, your system will get you some fortuitous results. In yesterday's compact KO, Playing Polish Club, Brad Mampe opened a nebulous 1♣ (showing either 12-14 balanced, 15-17 with long clubs, or any 18+). Steve Willner responded a natural 1♥. After the interference, Brad's 2♦ showed a big hand, allowing Steve to rebid his hearts. Now it was just a matter of finding the ♣A and ♥K for the grand to be odds-on. The pair did so quickly, earning ten IMPs when their opponents stopped in six, en route to a first place finish in the event. Brad became a silver life master when his team reached the semifinals of the event, and his partner Steve followed suit when they reached the finals.
